LETTER FROM REV. J. E. STARR.

TO THE EDITOR:—The matron of "The Chinese Home" has forwarded to me the enclosed letter with the request that, if I approve, I will hand it to you for publication. I only regret that Miss Leak has been put to the necessity of resorting to the press, but in view of the slur which, in your issue of the 7th inst., you cast upon the "Home," while endeavoring, as numbers of people think, to besmirch the character of Mr. Gardner, I see open to her no other course. I should also myself like to say a word on behalf of Mr. Gardner. You say: "We believe that Mr. Gardner is in precisely the same position as Prof. Menzies was placed by him," and you insinuate that Mr. Gardner has been trafficking in human blood. I confess I do not see upon what ground you base your belief. At any rate, when giving publicity to your belief, the part of a true journalist, I submit, would have been to publish all the facts which you knew were at your disposal. In his affidavits Ah Chee is made to say Gardner "told me if I would pay him $200 he would let me marry Ah Lin." Further, on referring to Ah Lin's refusal to marry him, he says that Mr. Gardner "used some undue influence which caused her to speak in that manner." What! Gardner offered to let the girl marry him for $200 and then prevented her! Besides, why did Gardner want her to go back to the "Home"—the very place where, if he had been guilty of wrong-doing, he would have run against the chance of exposure? Why did he have the Rev. Mr. Frazer (the minister referred to) go with him to the "Home?" He could not be deceived. Ah Chee can talk English, as also Ah Lin, and the name of Mr. Frazer in these circumstances, ought in the eyes of any person not prejudiced or actuated by spleen, to have protected Mr. Gardner from such a suspicion, as through the columns of your paper has been given wings. And further, if, as you would have the public believe, you are anxious to right a great wrong, why did you not publish the judge's notes of the trial and the judge's remarks in dismissing the order to show cause why a writ of habeas corpus should not issue, the application for which was based upon these affidavits? You publish the remarks which you say the judge made "in assenting to the issuance of the summons." Why did you not publish the judge's remarks in dismissing the application? They would not have suited your purpose, would they? But they would have cleared Mr. Gardner's character, I am assured, as the winds clear the atmosphere of impurities.

Mr. Gardner is not infallible. Like other men he has his faults. I regret, for my part, that ever he descended to defend himself in the public press. But soil his hands with a dirty dollar or blood money! Never! Every dollar he earns is honest and to his own impoverishment. I know he has expended the money he earns in relieving the distressed, in assisting the unfortunate and in defending the wronged. Only the other day, a gentleman from San Francisco said to me, "On account of his uprightness and fearlessness the judges regarded Mr. Gardner's removal from that city as a calamity." The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church hold him in the highest esteem. His fearlessness in the discharge of his official and Christian duty and his keen sense of right have brought down upon him, I know, much of the suspicion and criticism to which he has been subjected; but in place of it all, knowing as I do the real truth, I deem it an honor to say I could trust him with my life.

J. E. STARR,
Pastor of the Pandora St. Methodist Church.

Victoria, July 11th, 1888.

THE CHINESE "HOME."

TO THE EDITOR: In justice not only to Mr. Gardner, but also to "The Chinese Home," permit me the use of your columns to make public the following facts:

1. The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, at its annual meeting, held last October, in Belleville, Ont., determined to assume the maintenance and management of "The Home." Shortly afterwards the corresponding secretary of the board of managers, communicated with me at my place of residence in Nova Scotia with a view to my coming to Victoria, B. C., to assume the matronship of "The Home."

2. On the 29th December last I entered upon my duties as matron, and on behalf of the Woman's Missionary Society assumed the management of "The Home." Since then Mr. Gardner has had no connection with "The Home," save as he kindly interprets for me and gives me his counsel.

3. Upon assuming the matronship my first endeavor was, firmly but kindly, to bring the girls under discipline, by rules and regulations, so as to secure the doing of the housework, the making of their own clothing, and attention to school work. The girls were more or less rebellious under the requirement to do the work. So early in the evening of January 14th, Ah Lin and Ah Ho, the girls referred to in the affidavit you published in your issue of the 6th inst., left "The Home" without my knowledge. In the affidavit it is stated they said "the matron had been beating them and had refused them supper." I beg to say that they had not been beaten. Corporal punishment was not even attempted. Nor had I refused them supper, for I first discovered their absence when the other girls were taking their evening meal. It is also stated "they went to 'The Home' but were refused admittance." I beg to say that to my knowledge they did not return to "The Home," therefore could not have been refused admittance. On the contrary, I was anxious for their return. But being a stranger in the city, and not wishing to leave the other girls alone, I did not go out to look for them.

If it be true, as the affidavit states, that Ah Lin and Ah Ho went to Mrs. Fowler's house from "The Home" the least, I think, she could have done, would have been to bring the girls back to "The Home," and see if I had, as they stated, been ill-treating them. In such a case, had the matter been reported, you may be sure the Woman's Missionary Society would not have allowed me to remain in my position as matron. And, sir, I did make inquiries, and I know that Mr. Gardner made inquiries, inquiries regarding which, had we not been deceived, would have prevented the great wrong which has been lately been committed against these unfortunate girls.

4. The object of "The Home" is to afford shelter to Chinese girls desiring to escape from the life of shame they are compelled to lead in Chinatown. While they remain with us we do what we can to christianize and educate them, in the expectation of returning them to their own country and people, to become useful members of society.

5. The rescue homes in San Francisco have conferred upon them by law the right to detain girls, once rescued, against their will and they are there detained both by force of law and by means of iron barred windows, and, of course, for their good. But the law, to my knowledge, does not as yet confer such right upon "The Home" in Victoria. Still there seems to be a conviction you say, upon some minds that girls are taken by force to this "Home," and that they are here detained against their will. I beg to state that such is not the case. The "Home" is at No. 54 Herald street, and is open to the public. The girls can now speak English well enough to make themselves understood, and I shall be glad, Mr. Editor, to have you call and see for yourself that the girls choose of their own free will to come to the "Home," and of their own free will, they wish to remain until they can be sent to their own country and people.

6. Regarding the return of Ah Lin. On a Tuesday evening in June, Mr. Gardner and a Chinaman came to the "Home" with Ah Lin. I understood that the Chinaman claimed Ah Lin as his wife, that they had been living together for some time, and that they were to be married in the "Home" on Saturday evening following. Ah Lin was glad to see the girls, and retired almost immediately with them. Before noon the next day she with the others were asking me if I would let Ah Lin stay in the "Home," "She no want to go with Chinaman," etc. I had to reply to such questions some twenty times or more between Tuesday and Saturday evening. Ah Chee states in his affidavit "That on Saturday afternoon he spoke to Ah Lin in reference to her marriage at 8 o'clock, and she said 'All right,' and ran into the house." True; but the next minute she and the other girls were begging me not to let Chinaman see Ah Lin. About 8 p. m Mr. Gardner, Rev. Mr. Fraser, Ah Chee and a Chinaman friend came to the "Home" according to expectation. The marriage would have taken place had not the child positively refused to marry the man in the presence of the parties named, and sought my protection of her own free will. Of course she had been told that she could do just as she pleased. I beg to state here that Mr. Gardner did not see Ah Lin or speak to her, from the time Ah Chee left her on Tuesday until they both returned on Saturday evening. I also beg to say I did not beat Ah Lin; it was absurd to think I would at that time. I may also remark that the discrepancy in reference to Ah Lin's running away from the "Home" in January and her wish to remain at the present time is easily accounted for. She found it a different home in June from what she imagined in January it was going to be, and of course she was influenced by the report of the other girls.

7. I beg to state, in closing, that I know that the girls of the "Home" consider Mr. Gardner their best friend. They have all the grateful feelings towards him that one would expect them to have towards the person who had rescued them from slavery in its worst form; the person through whose influence they hope to be restored to their own people; the person through whom they make their wants and wishes known, and get help and a good home.

The "Home" has many friends in Victoria; and many more in the Dominion, and in other places. Tourists from Toronto, Philadelphia, Chicago, and other places call to give us a word of cheer in our labor of love for "the Rescued." I am sure we could have no enemies if our motives were really understood.

Yours sincerely,
ANNIE LEAKE,
Matron "Chinese Home."

Victoria, July 10th, 1888.

[In another column will be found a letter from Rev. J. E. Starr, particularly referring to Mr. Gardner, in whom it would appear he has unlimited confidence. Under the same heading is a well-written letter from Miss Leake, matron of the Chinese Home. Her story of the connection of Mr. Gardner with the institution, and the methods adopted in treating the inmates, is plain and straightforward, and bears the impress of truthfulness. Mr. Starr and Miss Leake, we believe, are honest in what they say, and sincere in their endeavor to do a good work among the Chinese, and they have already accomplished much.

The affidavits printed in THE COLONIST are on file, among others, in the supreme court and remain unanswered. The statements of the Misses Fowler and Ah Chee, if true, are worthy of further investigation. If false, they are replete with perjury of a vicious type, and the individual against whom they are directed, should at least have taken the trouble to reply to them, or proceeded in some manner that would have established his innocence. This course was maintained by the justice in dismissing the application. Perhaps the better method in printing them would have been to have done so without comment, and the statements would have come before the public without their first being prejudiced. Rev. Mr. Starr is of the belief that the whole matter is an indirect assault on him. Such is not the case. There is no desire to assert or insinuate that he is other than the honorable and upright man that the public believe him to be, or that he is acting in any way contrary to what is right.

With regard to Mr. Gardner, if future developments prove that he has been the victim of circumstances, and that the mass of evidence, sworn and otherwise, which has been brought against him, is unfounded, we will endeavor to make every reparation in our power to establish his innocence. If guiltless of the charges preferred he is a deeply wronged man, and we will freely acknowledge that we were misled by perjured evidence and false statements.

The evidence submitted to Mr. Parmalee when here has not been referred to in these columns. It will be placed before the minister of customs for decision, and whatever that may be, we think Rev. Mr. Starr, together with the general public, will acquiesce in it. Chinese merchants have petitioned against Mr. Gardner's actions and representative citizens have attested to the respectability of the petitioners. Chinese and others also gave evidence before the assistant commissioner when here. Contrary to this strong representations have been made in Mr. Gardner's favor, also by representative men, so that whatever the finding may be, each party will have had his case fairly stated.

Until future developments have resulted, we will have nothing further to say in the matter. Our intentions have been good. The position taken was voluntary on our part, and was not assumed through malice, or a desire to wantonly besmirch Mr. Gardner's character, or to injure anyone acting with him. The evidence submitted pointed to certain facts, and these facts, except by assertion, have not been disputed.]

CABLE NEWS.

A Committee of Judges to Enquire Into the Parnell Charges.

Malicious Rumor Concerning the Dowager Empress Victoria—Dr. Mackenzie Severely Criticized by the German Press—Conclusion of the Pan-Presbyterian Council.

Suggested by the Liberal Unionist Leader.

LONDON, July 12.—It is generally understood that the liberal unionist leader suggested the appointment of a judicial commission to investigate the charges against Parnell.

Vote of Confidence.

In the House of Lords this evening the Duke of Argyle moved a vote of confidence in the government's policy towards Ireland which secured to the people of Ireland a full enjoyment of personal freedom in all lawful transactions.

Officially Contradicted.

It is semi-officially stated that the story sent to the Pall-Mall Gazette by its Berlin correspondent with regard to the treatment of the Dowager Empress Victoria is based on a lying rumor which was circulated in that city.

The Parnell Charges.

In the Commons to-day Mr. Parnell asked the government to grant a select committee from the Commons to investigate the charges made against him in the Times. W. H. Smith replied that the government maintained an opinion that a tribunal such as Mr. Parnell proposed would be incompetent to deal with the question he raised, but he said the government were willing to pass an act appointing a committe wholly consisting of judges, fully empowered to enquire into allegations and charges made against certain members of Parliament by the Times. Parnell then asked if Smith intended to place on paper the terms of the motion he proposed. Smith replied that if Parnell accepted his offer he would put on paper a notice for such motion, asking leave of the house to bring in such a bill. Gladstone said it was desirable for Smith to do this in order that the house might see the exact terms of the motion. Smith said it would be done.

The Ashbourne Act.

In the Commons this morning Balfour arose to propose a measure to be considered during the present session to prevent a system of land purchase as in Ireland under the Ashbourne Act, from lapsing. Gladstone reminded him that Mr. Smith had stated on Tuesday that the only new measure that the government would introduce this session would be the bill for the attention of the Minister of Agriculture. The bill extending the Ashbourne Act, Mr. Gladstone said, would tend to prolong the session. Mr. Smith said that the bill contained one clause covering the proposed extension. The fund was almost exhausted and Parliament must be asked to assist. Mr. Gladstone said the proposal opened a new and most important chapter on subverting promises of the Government, the Opposition would thereby reconsider their proposition.

Parnell Accepts the Government's Proposal.

Parnell accepts the government's proposal for the appointment of a commission to investigate the Times' charges against him. He will, however, subject the judges appointed to rigid conditions and restrict the scope of the inquiry.

A Malicious Rumor.

The St. James' Gazette commenting on the story regarding the rigid surveillance maintained over the Dowager Empress Victoria, which the Pall Mall Gazette published to-day, says: "The rumor is the most malicious one ever invented and cannot possibly have the slightest truth for foundation." It says that it is afraid that the publishing of the story may do harm to men who may not have had anything to do with it. This reference is to Dr. Mackenzie.

The Pan-Presbyterian Council.

At the pan-Presbyterian council today, Dr. Turnbull was elected treasurer of England and Mr. Junkin American treasurer. Dr. Chambers, of New York, presented a report concurring with the Quakers' memorial for the substitution of arbitration for war. A motion was adopted extending fraternal sympathy with the Anglican bishops and advocating closer union between the Anglican church and the Presbyterian. At the closing meeting of the council this evening Dr. Speimer, of Calcutta, said he was convinced that the council had been laying the corner-stone for a grand superstructure. Mr. Apple, of Lancaster, Pa., said that the meeting were the most important in the history of Protestantism.

Dr. Mackenzie's Treatment Criticized.

The excitement created through Germany by the reports of the doctors who attended the late Kaiser Frederick is intense, and their criticisms of Mackenzie's conduct of the case form the sole topic of conversation. The Kreuz Zeitung writes comments on reports and overwhelms Dr. Mackenzie with invectives. To the question why the German doctors did not attempt to save the royal patient from Dr. Mackenzie? The National Zeitung replies that according to Prussian principles their official position in the tragedy prevented them from making an appeal to the public, but they did appeal to Kairer William while the sick man was at San Remo, and one of their number stated the case to him without reserve. His majesty was deeply distressed by the recital of the circumstances and answered, "My son is 56 years of age, and the right of final decision regarding his medical treatment cannot be taken from him." The Progressist journals which are inclined to defend Dr. Mackenzie, point to the fact that there were eight doctors concerned in the case who did not sign the reports criticizing Dr. Mackenzie.

The Imperial Widow.

The Pall Mall Gazette, in its issue today, publishes a sensational article from its Berlin correspondent, dated July 10th. The correspondent states that Freidrickskron palace, at which the Dowager Empress Victoria is stopping, is in all but name a prison and that the Empress is virtually under arrest. The correspondent adds that in any case the imperial widow is receiving but scant consideration from the men now in power and it is presumed the object of this treatment is to obtain possession of the late Emperor Frederick's papers.

WESTMINSTER NOTES.

Laying the Corner Stone of St. Andrew's Church—The Rifle Company Offer Service for Skeena—A Trade Dinner—Salmon Run an Average at the Present Time.

(Special to THE COLONIST.)

WESTMINSTER, July 12. The corner stone of the new St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was laid to-night with the usual ceremonies by the Rev. Robt. Jamieson, in the presence of a large assemblage. The new edifice is to be of brick, with stone facings, and its estimated cost is $12,000. Speeches were made after the ceremony by Rev. Mr. Thomson, of Knox College, Toronto, Revs. Haddon White and Scoullar, of Westminster, and the Hon. John Robson.

It is stated the Westminster company of rifles have volunteered for service at Skeena.

The citizens' dinner to-night to the promoters of the Southern railway scheme and foreign lumber industry was well attended and proved successful.

The salmon run is still small, but cannery men say it is about an average for this date. It is expected the big run will start inside of a week. The fish this season are larger than usual.

ARCHBISHOP SEGHERS' SUCCESSOR.

The Papal Bull Appointing Rev. J. N. Lemmens Bishop of Vancouver Island Received from Rome.

(Special to THE COLONIST.)

PORTLAND, July 12.—Archbishop Gross has received from Rome the Papal bull appointing Rev. John Nicholas Lemmens Bishop of Vancouver Island and Alaska, and has forwared the document to the new bishop-elect at Victoria, B.C. The archbishop also desires that the consecration should take place at as early a date as possible, as he intends to make an extended tour of his diocese after the ceremony.

The Papal bull referred to in the above despatch will probably reach Victoria today, and the official announcement of Bishop Lemmens' appointment will be made at St. Andrew's pro-Cathedral on Sunday, when the date of the consecration of the new prelate will also be probably announced. A remarkable coincidence in connection with the receipt of the papal document to-day is that on the 13th of July, 1886—two years ago exactly—the late Archbishop Seghers left this city to meet his death in Alaska at the hands of the miscreant Fuller.

THE INDIAN TROUBLE.

The news which Mr. Borland communicated to the government from the north, the details of which, as contained in the letters of Judge Wootton and Constable Washburn, appeared in our columns yesterday morning, is of a startling character. The fact that the Indians believe themselves so far masters of the situation as to demand a white man in place of Kit-wan-cool Jim, who was killed by Special Green in the discharge of his duty, as well as $1,000 in cash causes alarm for the safety of the men now barricaded in the Hudson Bay Company's building at Hazleton, at the forks of the Skeena river. With commendable zeal the government at once made arrangements for sending a special force to Hazelton, and in a very brief time it is understood that a detachment of from fifty to one hundred men from "C" Battery will proceed to Hazleton to the relief of the besieged specials. A matter of this kind requires time for preparation, but we can assure the public that the government are proceeding with all possible alacrity. The fact that the river has never been navigated to Hazelton is a problem which must be solved, while there are matters connected with sending up a force which cannot be arranged in the course of twenty-four hours. The impertinence of the Times in advising the Government what to do, and in indulging in fault-finding because a steamer was not sent north an hour after Mr. Boland arrived here, would be amusing were it not distressing, in view of the gravity of the situation. The attempt to make political capital out of the imminent danger of a number of our fellow-men, officers of the law, is a deporable spectacle, and could only emanate from a very small mind indeed. The Government are making all the haste possible in the matter, and will leave no pains unspared to rescue the specials now unhappily in peril in the north.

THE TIMES AND THE DISTRICT.

The ridiculous position, indeed we may say the saddening position, in which an injudicious writer can place himself, was never better illustrated than in the instance of the Times' attack on the honest yeomanry of Victoria District, whom it editorially accused of being bought and sold like sheep at the last bye-election. Fairly challenged by us to make good its sweeping assertions by stating cases, THE COLONIST offering to bear its fair share of the expenses should the matter be taken into court, we were met by a namby-pamby, milk-and-watery article, which evaded the real issue, and further insulted the people of the District. The course our esteemed contemporary pursued was a most discreditable one, and will bear fruit when the general elections come on. It is probable that then the votes of the people will tell louder than words the feelings of the community over the outrage perpetrated upon it by the organ of the Opposition. Sensible at last of the fact that it has grievously erred, it endeavors to draw a red herring across the track, by using some most ponderously awful words about a "trafficker in human flesh and blood," etc., etc., totally foreign to the question in hand. The esteemed Times cannot make its peace with the people it has scandalized, in that way Some less puerile tactics must be followed if it desires to make amends for its brutality to a whole district. The "handfuls of gold twenties" dangled before the electors of Victoria District by the night-owl "emissaries" of a corrupt government, "who were not wholly unsuccessful," as alleged by the Times, would mean, if true, the political and moral debasement of the electorate of Victoria District. This slur cast upon our neighbors of the peninsula will not soon be forgotten. Already murmurs loud and deep of an insulted people are heard. These will gain weight as the full force of the Times' unsubstantiated charges are discussed and understood.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS.

With the following sentiment of the Toronto Empire we are heartily in accord:

We are pleased to notice that the people of the new and prosperous city of Vancouver, B. C., entered into the spirit of celebrating Dominion Day in a manner which proves that they are heart and soul with their countrymen in other parts of the Confederation. What the people of Canada have to be educated up to is the recognition of the fact that from the shores of the Atlantic to the coast of the Pacific the country is one and indissoluble. The preachers of Provincialism should be given the cold shoulder.

It will be Victoria's turn to do Dominion Day justice next year—and we will do it royally.

For the first half of the present year the failures in the United States numbered 5,189, as compared with 4,912 for the same period in 1887, indicating an increase of 277. The liabilities for the first six months of 1888 are $68,114,159, while for the same period in 1887, they were $55,138,092.

The Zew Zealand government has been spending money at a tremendous rate. The population of the colony is only 630,000, yet its public debt in round numbers amounts to $187,500,000. It placed a loan of $10,000,000 on the British market. Most of the debt has been incurred for the construction of railways and other public works, and two millions (£400,000) of the new loan is intended as New Zealand's contribution to the costs of armaments in accordance with an arrangement that was made at the Colonial conference. The experts of the colony amount to about $33,500,000, and its whole trade to something like twice that amount.

Imagine our feelings of pleasure and surprise at reading the following in the columns of the Toronto Globe:

The fact that the Dominion has just attained her majority reminds me of some opinions expressed by Prof. Weldon, M. P., of Dalhousie University, in a conversation had with him a few months ago. He declared that while it was true that there had been secession feeling in Nova Scotia, and that many of the older generation had never been reconciled to Confederation, yet the young men of the province were showing the national spirit, and year by year Nova Scotia became more loyal to the Canadian union. He argued that there never was any feeling in that province for annexation, and that a few years hence the favorite dream of a maritime union will have ceased to charm any noticeable percentage of the people of the east. It must not be forgotten, however, that Prof. Weldon is a prospective conservative cabinet minister, and that there are many voices from down by the sea that speak in a very different strain; but it will be fair to bear in mind as well that when Mr. Weldon uttered these views he was not on the stump, that he declared them to be his sincere convictions derived from constant contact with the young men of the province, and that he spoke only for the young men and did not pretend that the growing feeling of Canadianism was singular to the youth of either political party.

Consult a few more of the brilliant young maritime province members, friend Globe, and you will discard your pessimistic spectacles for gold-rimmed optimistic ones. There is as little genuine annexation feeling in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick or Prince Edward Island as there is in British Columbia, where its traitor face is unknown.

PRESS COMMENTS.

(Vancouver Herald.)

The Victoria Times has not yet got over the Saanich election. It talks about the personation of dead men and such like in the style generally adopted by defeated politicians. It is a way they have of letting themselves out of the fight, or of explaining why they were not elected. If it is satisfactory to themselves, it is very unsatisfactory to the general public. They might like it better if those who have been bribed or bribing were designated by name, they might then have some hope that there was something in the accusations. When the accusers remain at a safe distance in making their charges, by referring to nobody in particular, the public may fairly assume that there is nothing to be particular about. It is a wonder that those who use this method of explaining how they failed to be elected do not see that it has been too often used to be effective. The public look for it as a matter of course and would be apt to think that something had got out of gear if it did not make its appearance at the regular time, and under the ordinary circumstances.

THE HERMIT KINGDOM AND CHINA.

To THE EDITOR:—To what lengths His Excellency Li Chung Tang will proceed in asserting his right to be King of Corea remains to be seen, but when we read the significant fact that "an uneasy feeling exists amongst the foreign community at Seoul," we can be at no loss to read between the lines of its furnishing that astute statesman with a favorable opportunity of throwing into a defenceless country a large body of troops; ostensibly with the view of protecting foreign interests, but in reality furthering his own. At this distance, we can form no proper opinion or trace the foundation of these fears, whether real, or only the production of an intrigue of China by their Corean agents. However, cleverly, the prime minister of China may have intrigued to fasten the links of suzerain rights on Corea, the fact indisputably remains to be faced, that Corea holds herself a separate kingdon, and in despite of pressure of power has managed to send forth her envoys to place matters right and to seek that moral support of foreign nations who honor her with representatives at Seoul. If these ambassadors are true to themselves and the instructions of their king, they will undoubtedly enlist the sympathy and good will of England, United States, and other powers to which they may be accredited to; for beyond dispute, as their king has made and signed (independent of China), treaties, and permitted foreign ministers to reside at his capital, they expect, and will most assuredly receive the same courtesy at foreign courts. China, in lending foreign nations her aid, to open up the Hermit Kingdom of Kowlisan or Corea, took the opportunity of placing her agent, Herr Von Mollendorff, in the position of adviser to the king, as well as others who were transferred to manage her customs revenue. In this way a cordon of Chinese foreign officials was formed, ably seconded by Corean merchants, whose trade interests were at Peking; these, it is needless to say, spared no pains to form public opinion in China as to the suzerain rights of that empire over Corea. The result of these manœuvres may be found in the emeute which closed in the captivity of the king at Powtingfoo, the residence of Li Chung Tang. Corea does not for a moment dispute the greater power of China, and continues yearly her complimentary presents to that Empire, but these must only be viewed as offerings of good will from a weak to a powerful neighbor, and are certainly not sent in the spirit of vassalage. We ought to remember at this time, that not many years back one of our first missions to the Imperial court at Peking, bore a flag over the head of our ambassador entitled "Tribute bearers to our Exalted Emperor." China lays claim to this right over Burmah, and it is credible to indulge the thought that the resistance we meet there is secretly fostered by China. In the struggle between France and Annam, over whom this right was claimed, France traced to China, the assistance Annam was secretly receiving, and declared war against her. She claims this right over Siam, but one has only to observe the smile that mantles the face of Krone Muvri Devaswonger, the Crown Prince of that country, to see the futility of pressing it. She covers the Nepaulese and Thibetjn ambassadors with court robes, which are thrown aside the moment the cortege leaves the city gates. This shadowy suzerainty, extending to individuals as well as nations has but an imaginary foundation. And as the weak seek the protection of the powerful and good, it is but right and manly that they should have it. It will be a matter of sincere rejoicing if Corea finds a friend in England and the United States.

Since penning the above, intelligence has come to hand that nine of Corea's patriotic officials have been decapitated, and that foreigners have fled to the protection of their consulates. It will not be a matter of surprise should events in Burmah, which I foresaw two years since and expressed in your paper, lead England to thrust aside the flimsy veil which conceals the part China is playing in that country. Should that event happily occur, we know the result will be, to use a colonial phrase, "England will shut down upon her." "So mote it be."

TO THE INCREDULOUS.

There Was Never the Man Who was Fooled or Humbugged—He Humbugs Himself.

The human race affords in itself a most singular study. There are among the many class of thinkers, those who repose too much confidence in others, too little confidence in themselves, or no confidence in anything. The man who knows it all himself, the man who thinks somebody else knows it all and the man who thinks he knows who knows it all. The egotist, the simpleton and the skeptic. Recognizing the fact that people require more substantial evidence than mere words and promises, Drs. Darrin resort to the most legitimate method of advertising themselves by advertising their cures. That those among the community may be afforded an opportunity of investigating before calling in person upon the doctors, the following testimonials are published bearing evidence of the doctors' ability and skill as well as success.

DEAFNESS CURED IN TEN MINUTES.

MR. EDITOR—Dear Sir: I reside in North Yakima, W. T. I consulted Drs. Darrin for deafness. My left ear was totally deaf. With one operation with Drs. Darrin's electro-magnetic cure, of ten minutes, I was made to hear as well as ever in my life. Can be referred to as to the truth of my statement.

C. V. FOWLER.

AN OPEN LETTER.

SEATTLE, W. T.

DRS. DARRIN—Gentlemen: I now take the pleasure of writing to you that after a full course of your electro-magnetic treatment I am entirely cured of a pain in my chest which has troubled me for over eight years. Having been under treatment by doctors of Liverpool, Glasgow, Calcutta and San Francisco, none of them did me any good until I came under your treatment, which I am sure has permanently cured me, for which, gentlemen, I beg to remain,

Yours gratefully,
WILLIAM LITTLE.

ASTHMA AND OPIUM HABIT CURED.

MR. EDITOR—Dear Sir: I have been troubled with asthma for the past thirteen months, so bad as not to be able to do a day's work, and have suffered "torments of the damned." The paroxysms were so severe that my life was many thought to be despaired of. I had tried everything, and a great many physicians. In order to get relief I had to resort to morphine, until I had contracted the habit. I put myself under their electro-magnetic treatment. Now, after several treatments, I am entirely cured of my asthma and the morphine habit, and I have no craving for the drug. I can be referred to at the McKenzie House, foot of Marion street, Seattle, W.T. H. A. JOHNSON.

CURE OF CATARRH AND VARICOSE VEINS.

TO THE PUBLIC: For ten years I have been troubled with a very disagreeable catarrh and bronchitis. I finally got so bad that I had to give up my business of ranching and riding for my stock. The catarrh extended to my lungs and stomach. My physicians gave me up as incurable. Last October I came to Drs. Darrin, and now, after three months' treatment, I consider myself so far restored as to be able to do all my own work. Before treatment I had given up horseback riding, and could not attend to my stock at all; now I can remain in the saddle all day without fatigue. My wife has also been troubled with dropsy, milk leg and varicose veins, so she could only walk with the greatest inconvenience, and it was painful to the touch, and finally broke out in a running sore. Drs. Darrin sent her medicines, and to our glad joy, she is entirely cured.

Refer to me at Sprague, W. T.

FREDERICK MOHS.

The above gentleman, Mr. Mohs, owns a farm of 2,700 acres and hundreds of cattle and horses, and these statements coming from a man of undoubted integrity, and whose reputation for veracity is above suspicion must be admitted as positively true.

SCIATIC RHEUMATISM CURED.

MR. EDITOR—Dear Sir: For nearly a year I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism, and was so bad to be unable to sit upon a chair or to get around, and suffered tortures indescribable. I came to the Drs. Darrin, Seattle, W. T., and went under their electro-magnetic treatment and home treatment. I now consider myself entirely cured. Can be referred to at Port Blakely, W. T.

S. F. HOSKINSON.

DEAFNESS AND DISCHARGING EARS CURED.

TO THE PUBLIC: I have been troubled with deafness and a discharge of one ear for over twenty yerrs, and have tried everything. I placed myself under the Drs. Darrin's electro-magnetic treatment, and I am now cured of my long standing trouble. I cheerfully recommend the doctors to afflicted humanity. Can be referred to at Stuck Junction, W. T.

JOHN WOLFLIN.

OVERFLOWING TEARS CHECKED.

TO THE PUBLIC: For a number of years I have been troubled with overflowing of tears down my cheeks, and have been operated on a number of times by a physician without success. Called on the Drs. Darrin at the International Hotel, Cherry street, and they operated upon my eye, and now I feel great relief for the first time in fourteen years. I can be referred to at 1351 Railroad street, Tacoma, W. T.

MRS. A. J. QUENTAL.

A CERTIFIED CURE.

This is to certify that I have been troubled with weak eyes for over a year past, and with a constant pain over the eye and ball, and was almost blind at times. I went to Drs. Darrin and put myself under their electro-magnetic treatment, with the happiest results, as I consider myself cured. I can be gladly referred to at White River, W. T.

JOHN MULLEN.

OFFICE HOURS AND PLACE OF BUSINESS.

The Drs. Darrin are located at the International Hotel, Cherry street, Seattle, W. T. Consultation free.

Office hours, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays 10 to 12. All curable chronic diseases, catarrh and deafness are confidentially and successfully treated. Cures of private diseases guaranteed. Circulars sent free. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit at the doctors' office.

(The Drs. Darrin also have a branch office at 235 Fifth street, Portland, Or., where any in that vicinity can consult them.)

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly, and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

INSURING THE SICK.

WHAT HAS BEEN DETERMINED BY BY VITAL STATISTICS.

Can a Profit Be Made in Insuring Unhealthy Lives—A Table of Comparative Probabilities—Theoretical Expectations of the Diseased.

The practice of the life insurance companies in insuring only the best lives has often been the subject of a grim kind of humor. "The people they insure," it is said, "are those who appear from a medical examination to stand in no need of insurance, while those who really do need it cannot get it." This is not altogether true, of course. A good many of the people who can successfully pass the medical examiners of the insurance companies stand quite as much in need of insurance as those who cannot pass, but it is certainly unfortunate that the latter, who certainly do stand in need of insurance, are unable to get it. It is not only unfortunate, but seems to be a trifle unjust; and the question is often seriously asked why, when the insurance risks are based on general mortality and not on the mortality among selected lives, the insurance companies should decline risks upon any lives but the selected?

The answer is, probably, that the insurance companies are not doing business on philanthropic principles—though their solicitors would fain persuade us to the contrary—but to make money. But even when the answer has been given the question may still be asked whether there is not a profit to be made in insuring impaired lives.

THE UNHEALTHY LIFE.

An article in The American Exchange and Review indicates the possibility that this question may yet be answered in the affirmative. It points out that while the unhealthy life is, as a rule, in greater peril of death than the healthy one, the risk in the case of the former can, in all probability, be determined with as much accuracy and safety as it can in the case of the latter. This is certainly a reasonable view. The number of years upon which a healthy man of 20, or 30 or 40, or any other age, can reasonably expect to live, has been ascertained by a careful compilation of vital statistics. What is to prevent the ascertainment, by a like careful compilation, of the age to which an unhealthy or unsound man of 20, 30 or 40, or any other age, may expect to live?

To a certain small extent, according to the article referred to, this has been done by the Institute of Actuaries in London, England, in constructing a table of comparative probabilities in the cases of healthy and diseased lives. The figures, though not at all conclusive, are very interesting, showing side by side the survivorships at 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, etc., of 10,000 healthy and 10,000 diseased lives, starting at the age of 10. Singularly enough, at the age of 20 the showing in the case of the diseased lives is the better, 9,679 of them surviving against 9,554 of the healthy lives. From that time forward, however, the figures favor the healthy lives in a gradually increasing ratio. At 30 the survivors in the healthy 10,000 are 8,904 against 8,548 in the diseased 10,000. At 60 the healthy side shows 5,547 survivors and the diseased only 4,832. At 96 they are nearly equal, but the diseased lives have the advantage by one, showing 26 against 25 of the healthy lives.

THEORETICAL EXPECTATIONS.

The Exchange and Review concludes its article with what it calls a table of "theoretical expectations of diseased life," which might more appropriately be called a hypothetical table, inasmuch as it is not put forward as even approximately accurate. It is useful, however, in the suggestion it furnishes that a table may be constructed sufficiently accurate for practical purposes. Whether any of the existing companies will take up the suggestion is very doubtful. The best of them are doing quite well enough on their present basis not to be tempted to embark in any new field, and it is earnestly to be hoped that the worst of them, which are not doing well now, will not injure the business of insuring impaired lives by giving it a bad send off.

A fortune, however, awaits the company, old or new, which shall, with sound judgment and sufficient capital, enter upon that business. While the price to be charged would necessarily be higher than in the case of healthy lives, the risk, if the business were conducted on a sound basis, would probably be no greater. The cost would probably be less, especially in the item of commissions or salaries to solicitors. If anything can positively be predicted as to an utterly untried scheme, it can be predicted that men of impaired lives would need much less soliciting to induce them to insure than the men of healthy lives do.—Detroit Free Press.

Getting Things Somewhat Mixed.

A newly elected justice of the peace, who had been used to drawing up deeds and wills and little else, was called up to marry a couple in haste. Removing his hat he remarked: "Hats off in the presence of the court." All being uncovered, he proceeded: "Hold up yer right hand. You, John Mankin, do yer solemnly swear, to the best of yer knowledge an' belief, that yer take this woman to have an' to hold for yerself, yer heirs, execyters, administraters and assigns, for yer an' thir use an' behoof forever?"

"I do," answered the groom, promptly

"You, Alice Evans, take this year man for yer husband, ter have and ter hold forever; an' you do solemnly swear that yer lawfully seized in fee simple an' free from all encumbrance, an' have good right to sell, bargain and convey to said grantee, yerself, yer heirs, administrators and assigns?"

"I—I do," said the bride, doubtfully.

"Well, that 'er's wuth a dollar 'n fifty cents."

"Are we married?" asked the bride.

"Yes. Know all men by these presents that I, being in good health and of sound mind and disposition, in consideration of a dollar 'n fifty cents, to me in hand well an' truly paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do an' by the presents have declared you man an' wife durin' good behavior an' until otherwise ordered by the court."—Omaha Bee.

A Disappointed Puppy.

The most disappointed looking man to be met with in a day's journey on the elevated roads is the flirtatious whipper snapper who discovers that he has permitted a pretty girl to stand, and who only makes the discovery after some other man has given her a seat. The scorn with which she receives any attempts on his part to attract her attention adds a double barb to his fond regrets for what might have been had he had his eyes open in time. But it always does take puppies a long time to get their eyes open.—New York Press "Every Day Talk."

Work has now been commenced at another point in the claim. It is understood a good offer is at present under consideration by the company from an English source.

The "Islander" Launched.

Capt. John Irving received a cablegram stating that the new steamer, the Islander, had been successfully launched yesterday. She would have been launched some time previously had not a delay occurred in making the machinery. However, the interior fittings were proceeded with, and it is expected that the steamer will be completed in contract time, 7th August, and sail for this port. She will probably arrive the first or second week in Oct., and will be immediately placed on the Victoria-Vancouver route.

The Steamer Idaho.

The steamer Idaho, Capt. Wallace, arrived at the outer wharf from the Sound yesterday afternoon and left for Alaska at 11 o'clock last night. Since being in San Francisco, the Idaho has undergone a complete overhauling and many changes were made. New boilers were placed in her and the cabin accommodations were greatly enlarged. Where cargo was formerly stored, staterooms have been built, the long saloon being now used as a dining room in conjunction with the old one. Altogether the alterations are a success and the steamer a picture of comfort. About 150 excursionists went up on her last night.

The Thistle Nuisance.

The city by-law providing that thistles shall be destroyed within the city limits is rigidly enforced and the noxious weed is thereby kept from spreading. This only operates to the city boundary, for in the adjacent districts the thistle is permitted to grow in luxuriance. On a windy day, when the thistles are fully grown, clouds of seeds are blown into the city, and form the nucleus of next year's crop. Citizens who have paid attention to the by-law, think it but right that the provincial authorities should see that thistles in the districts are kept down, and especially along the roadsides, where they are specially abundant. District officers might be instructed to cut down all roadside thistles, thus preventing a great spread of seed.

The Old Telegraph Trail.

Mr. R. Borland, who took a pack train from Quesnellemouth to Skeena Forks, states that the trip occupied thirty days. The trail in many places had become overgrown and a great deal of slashing had to be done to make it passable. The old bridges across streams had been washed away or were rotten and in some cases structures ninety feet long had to be thrown across. The feed all along was most luxuriant, the grass in some cases being the height of a man. Owing to the extreme high water it had been impossible up to the present to bring goods up the Skeena and as a consequence the pack train has not made a trip from Hazelton, over the mountains and into the Omineca country. Mr. Borland will leave for the north at the first opportunity, and expects to start a pack train on his arrival.

A Pioneer Gone.

Mr. Thos. Hoy, who has been a patient in Saint Mary's Hospital, Westminster, died in that institution on Tuesday evening after an illness of many years standing, aged 65 years. Mr. Hoy came to this province in company with his brother Richard in 1861, and at first engaged successfully in mining along the Fraser and Thompson rivers until they settled down on their farm at Lillooet where they have been ever since. During all these years of toil in this country the deceased accumulated a large fortune and was one of the wealthiest men in the upper country. The funeral took place yesterday morning from St. Peter's Cathedral at 8 o'clock to the Catholic cemetery at Sapperton. The news of Mr. Hoy's death will be received with feelings of deep regret by many of the old timers of the province among whom he was well known.

From Kyoquot Sound.

Rev. Father Nicolaye, of Kyoquot Sound, a mission about 120 miles above Barclay Sound, on the West Coast, is in the city and is a guest at the Episcopal Palace, Yates street. The rev. gentleman arrived by canoe and was eleven days in making the trip. He had some difficulty in obtaining a crew to bring him to Victoria, owing to a report which had circulated among the Indians on the coast that smallpox was prevalent here. The natives dread this disease, and the report spread consternation among the tribes along the coast. It was only by the merest chance that a crew could be induced to come up to Victoria, and after landing Father Nicolaye they made all speed for the Mainland to be out of reach of the supposed disease. The rev. gentleman reports the mission in a flourishing condition, and the natives all well and happy. There is little news of the sealers. Capt. Sieward's schooner had obtained a hunting crew of six canoes at Kyoquot and sailed for Behring's Sea. One of Spring's schooners being unable to obtain a crew, was laid up. The other sealers had not visited Kyoquot. A few hours after Father Nicolaye had started for Victoria he was overtaken by another canoe of Indians who reported having found the body of a white man which had just been washed ashore. The body, which was quite sound, and apparently not long in the water, was attired in black pants, blue shirt and vest; but had no shoes or coat. In the vest was found a pocket-book with some papers, and these the Indians had handed over to Mr. Campbell, the storekeeper at Kyoquot, who will doubtless forward them to Victoria at the first opportunity. The body was decently interred by the Indians.

No Trace Found.

No trace has been found of the bodies of Mr. Russell or the sailor from H. M. S. Caroline, drowned in Burrard Inlet. Mr. Thomas, the diver, is going to make an additional effort to locate the Thistle's whereabout, for if once found, she can easily be brought to the surface.

Cricket Team.

The following gentlemen have been chosen to represent the Westminster club in the cricket match against "C" Battery on Saturday: Miles, Raymond, Lewis, Chappel, Wilson, Armstrong, Woods, Gifford, Smith, Read and Dockrill; spare man, Hamber; Mr. Wolfenden, umpire, and Mr. Wilson, scorer.

Heads the List in Beer.

The diagrams placed on the bulletin board at Frank Campbell's corner yesterday, and which illustrate the amount of beer, spirits and wine consumed by the different provinces since Confederation, have attracted considerable attention inasmuch as British Columbia heads the list with 72,000 gallons of beer, leaving all competitors far behind. In wine this province also heads the list, but we can only claim second place on the spirits. Quebec holds first place in the latter beverage.

Ladies Aid Society Organized.

The ladies of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church held a meeting on Wednesday afternoon and formed a Ladies Aid and Missionary Society. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. John Robson; vice-president, Mrs. T. M. Henderson; secretary, Mrs. R. B. McMicking; treasurer, Mrs. J. McB. Smith. Another meeting will be called shortly when committees will be formed. This movement on the part of the ladies of the church is one worthy of encouragement and it is hoped they will succeed in their endeavors.

Canners' Association.

The salmon packers met a few days ago and formed an association which they hope will result beneficially to all concerned. Mr. J. H. Todd has been elected president, and Mr. E. A. Wadhams secretary and treasurer. The object of the association is mutual benefit and the advancement and protection of the fishing industry on the Fraser river. The association have issued a poster offering $500 reward to anyone who can prove that the employees of the canneries have sold fish to outside parties. The association has enrolled the name of every canner of importance on the river.

Excursion to the North.

The C. P. N. Co. announce this morning an excursion to the north on the steamer Princess Louise, calling at various points on the coast, including Queen Charlotte Islands. The course of the steamer will be through the inner passages amidst the grand and beautiful scenery, and the trip will prove one of rare enjoyment. Comparatively few Victorians are acquainted with the many beauties of the northern coast, and this trip will afford an opportunity to a limited number to become personally familiar with them. The number to be taken is limited to forty-four, and all intending to take in the excursion should at once consult the C. P. N. authorities regarding fare, etc.

A Mongolian Dude.

Toronto Empire: A well-dressed Mongolian might have been seen yesterday afternoon doing King and Yonge streets, inspecting shop windows, casting furtive glances at the Melican gal, and otherwise acting the gay in a distant land. One decided weakness in his make-up is his name, and that is Wun Lung. He was not without acquaintances, for he greeted one person hailing from the west with, "hullo, Mlister, I no see you long time; how you makee things in Toronto?" Mr. Wun Lung further stated that since living in Victoria, B. C., he had made a journey to China, and when asked what he was doing now, said: "Nothing. Me what Melican man callee dude; me go island and mashee; oh, me likee Tolonto velly much, and perhaps me stayee here."

Fighting for Their Rights.

A Washington, D. C., despatch received yesterday, says: Handy & Co., of San Francisco, owners of the schooner Silva Handy, which was seized in Behring's Sea in 1887 while taking seals, have applied to the United States supreme court for the release of the schooner and her cargo. The case was tried in the district court of Alaska and resulted in a judgment of forfeiture being given for the government by Judge Dawson. The defendant's attorney maintains that Russia exceeded her powers in claiming jurisdiction over these Behring's Sea waters, and asserts that she could convey no powers to the United States when she sold the territory of Alaska. He showed that Russia failed to carry out this claim when in 1864 she allowed several United States vessels to be destroyed in these waters without protest, thus showing that she seriously considered them as the high seas.

An Excursionist Paralyzed.

On the Mexico, last Monday, there arrived a gentleman named Flood, of San Francisco, who was accompanied by his nephew. He had been ill for some time and was on his way to Alaska, hoping to benefit his health by the trip. He went to Seattle on the steamer, where on Wednesday he joined the Idaho. He was taken ill during the night and when the steamer was nearing Port Townsend was stricken with paralysis. Capt. Wallace did all he could for Mr. Flood and on the arrival at the port above mentioned had him conveyed to the hospital, where at last accounts he was lying in a critical state and not expected to recover. His nephew remained by his side.

The news was received here yesterday and startled the friends of Mr. H. S. Flood, the representative of a large wholesale establishment in San Francisco, who imagined that he is afflicted the man. For their information we will state that that gentleman is well and expects to be over here shortly.

In a Nice Fix.

The Westminster correspondent of the Vancouver News-Advertiser says: A few evenings ago a number of boys went in an express to bathe in the Brunette river at the bridge on the Coquitlam road. All their clothes were left in the wagon, which stood on the road some little distance from the spot chosen for swimming. The horse became frightened at some object in the bush near by and bolted at a terrific pace along the road towards the city, and it was not until he had reached Sapperton that the horse was stopped. All the boys looked at each other in amazement and some of the younger ones commenced to shed tears, but that would not bring their clothes back. The only thing for them to do was to walk along the road which they did carefully avoiding all the stones and pebbles. Nearly all their clothes were strewn along the road, a pair of trowsers here and a shirt there until they reached their horse and wagon. No damage was done to either horse, wagon or anything else.

V. I. BUILDING SOCIETY.

Semi-Annual Meeting—Share No. 27 Draws an Appropriation—Motion Carried to Remunerate the Directors.

The semi-annual meeting of the Vancouver Island Building Society was held last evening.

The first business transacted was the drawing for an appropriation of $1,000, which resulted in No. 27, held by Mrs. Spooner, being the winning number.

The question of remunerating the directors was again brought up, and caused considearble discussion.

It was finally moved and seconded that the sum of $125 be paid the board of directors for their services during the six months ending December 31st, 1888; carried.

Nominations were then called for to fill the vacancies in the board of directors caused by the resignation of Messrs. Shakespeare and McKittrick.

Messrs. Shakespeare, Leonard, and M. Miller were put in nomination.

Mr. Shakespeare here withdrew, and Messrs. Leonard and Miller were declared elected.

A letter was read from Mr. Ross Munro tendering his resignation as auditor unless the remuneration of $5 per annum was increased.

Moved and seconded that Mr. Munro's resignation be accepted; carried.

Another discussion here arose as to the advisability of increasing the amount paid to the auditors.

Mr. Shakespeare moved that the sum be increased to $20 each per annum.

Mr. Geo. H. Maynard was decidedly opposed to voting away the funds of the society in this manner, and made the proposition that if any gentleman would consent to do the work gratuitously, he (Mr. Maynard) would do likewise. (Applause.)

Mr. Flitcroft Evans said it was evident there was a desire on the part of some members of the society to vote all the surplus money away in salaries to themselves. He would like to know what surplus was on hand available for such purposes?

The Secretary—Something over three hundred dollars.

Mr. Evans (in a sarcastic tone)—Then the best thing we can do and put an end to this remuneration business is to devote the entire balance on hand to the auditors. I move an amendment to that effect. (Laughter.)

Mr. Morris Moss—I second that amendment.

Mr. McKittrick thought that $10 to each auditor was quite enough, and moved an amendment to the amendment.

Mr. Evans here consented to withdraw his amendment.

The original motion of $20 for each auditor was then put and carried.

The following gentlemen were then nominated for auditors: Messrs. Ball, R. Jones and Ross Munro.

A ballot resulted in the election of Messrs. Jones and Monro.

This concluded the business and the meeting adjourned.

CIRCUS VANDERBILT.

Turns Horse Thief and Leaves for Parts Unknown—Consummate Cheek.

H. L. Vanderbilt, says the Seattle Enterprise, who has furnished considerable material for the press of late, added to his former escapades what may be called the chef d'œuvre of a cool and calculating schemer. Vanderbilt was released on the evening of July 3rd on bail of $100 and was no sooner on the "free wing" when he betook himself to his old game, namely, that of the tricky confidence schemer and sneak thief. The ink had been scarcely dry on the instrument that enabled him to walk through the streets as a free man pro tem, when he met a Mr. Crandall and passed himself off as Mr. Lacey, the advance agent of Maggie Mitchell's show. It appears that Mr. Crandall, who formerly ran the Montana stables in this city, first met Vanderbilt about a month ago on the voyage between San Francisco and Portland, on which occasion Vanderbilt represented himself as given above. Crandall had been reading the papers about a certain Vanderbilt, but failed to see any connection between the confidence operator and the oily-tongued Lacey, the advance and advertising agent of the Maggie Mitchell troupe. Who would? Vanderbilt stated to Mr. Crandall that he was obliged to go to Renton in the evening and had already half completed an arrangement with Mr. Sears, livery keeper, for a saddle horse, but disliked making the trip on horseback and would prefer going over in a buggy. Mr. Crandall took him to the Montana stables and after some talk with the manager, Mr. Dickson, he was allowed to take a horse and cart which he promised to return on July 4th. He did not return of course, and the sheriff is now engaged in looking for the missing three.

Peter Ustate, an Austrian, aged 41, died at the Royal Hospital last night from heart disease. He has been an inmate of the institution for seven months.

The cargo of the Italian bark Innocenti, bound from Moodyville for Melbourne, consists of 1350 tons weight of lumber which is equivalent to a total of 1575 tons measurement.

Vancouver's city treasurer was examined before the supreme court registrar yesterday on the matter of monies said to be owing to a defaulting contractor by the city, but he did not possess the requisite information.

Lewis Morrison.

No one can deny the fact that anything that Lewis Morrison does is well done. His promises are always more than carried out, and he has the entire confidence of the theatre-going public. The announcement that he plays an engagement at The Victoria theatre on Monday and Tuesday nights is sufficient in itself to fill the house. As previously announced in THE COLONIST, Mr. Morrison will be seen in the great popular success, "A Dark Secret," a play that has literally startled the communities in which it has been seen. The great regatta and old church scenes are startling in their realism. The stage is set to represent the river Thames, and an immense body of water covers 3,000 cubic feet of space. It requires 22,500 gallons, and the aggregate weight far exceeds seventy-eight tons. The surface of the river is covered with steam launches, pleasure boats, racing shells, etc., and presents a gala appearance. In one of the acts a woman is actually rescued from a watery grave. "A Dark Secret" will only be given on Monday and Tuesday nights. The demand for seats points to a brilliantly successful week's engagement. The river scenes will be produced in Victoria in their entirety. Seats can be secured at Waitt's.

POLICE COURT.

Minnie Robbins Charged with Manslaughter—Other Cases.

Fook Kim, charged with allowing his chimney to catch fire was fined $5, and Frank Hammond, charged with being drunk, was fined a similar amount.

Minnie Robbins was charged with killing her infant child.

The information of Officer Walker, which is as follows, was read. He says he has just cause to believe and does believe that one Minnie Robbins, on or about the 10th day of July, 1888, did feloniously slay one Jennie Slaughter, an infant under the age of two months, the child of the said Minnie Robbins, contrary to the form of statute made and provided.

Supt. Bloomfield, in opening the case, said it was a most serious one and the first of the kind ever brought before court since he became connected with the police force. The witnesses for the prosecution were in court, but the woman did not seem to realize the nature of the charge, as possibly she might wish time to prepare a defense.

Judge Richards thought that evidence should be heard and Dr. Renwick was called. His evidence being similar to that taken at the coroner's inquest, we refrain from publishing it.

Supt. Bloomfield then asked for a remand until to-day, which his honor granted.
